Daniel 11:1-20 “Kingdoms Come and Go...Except for One”

I. We’re going to look _____ at the vision.

A. Keep in mind the following _____.

1. It pertains to the future of the _____ (10:14).
2. It will not be understood entirely until the _____ (12:8-9).
3. The revealed conflicts remind us of the _____ conflict.

B. Keep in mind the big _____.

1. The first section deals with _____'s day to Antiochus (1-20).
2. The second section deals with the deeds of _____ (21-35).
3. The third section deals with the _____ (36-45).

II. We’re going to look _____ through the vision.

A. The future involves a series of _____ (1-3).

B. The future involves a series of _____ (4-20).

C. The future involves hardship for God's _____ people (14, 16).

III. We’re going to look _____ in light of the vision.

A. When leaders make _____, remember four things.

1. When you hear promises of _____, remember conflict is inevitable.

2. When you hear promises of _____, remember prosperity is temporal.

3. When you hear promises of _____, remember leaders are limited.

4. When you hear promises of a _____ life, remember God alone is sovereign.

B. When _____ makes a promise, we can count on it.

Response: Rejoice, the _____ is King!
