

Sermon Series: “Mark: The Servant in Action”

Sermon Title: “Don’t Sleep on Suffering’s Significance.”

Sermon Scripture: Mark 14:27–42

Biblical Idea: The _____ of the Servant caught Jesus’ disciples off guard until the _____ regathering for mission.

- The eschatological weight of the _____ uncovered the need of the disciples (14:27–31; cf. Zech. 13:7).
- The Servant began to _____ the weight of his suffering with three episodes of invitation to watchful fellowship (14:32–42; cf. Ps. 42:5, 11; 43:5).
 - Episode one revealed the great _____ of the Servant (vv. 32–38).
 - Episode two explained the _____ of the disciples (39–40).
 - Episode three contrasted the _____ of the Servant and the _____ of the disciples (40–41).

Purpose Bridge: To fellowship in God’s great _____ (hour, cup)—the mission and glory of His Son.

Theological Tension: The natures of the spirit and the flesh _____ one another in suffering’s temptation.

Theological Truth: Disciples require the Spirit of Christ for _____ fellowship in God’s great burden.

Today’s Message: Don’t Sleep on Suffering’s Significance.

Make It Personal: 5 Watchful Ways

- Replace _____ and relief with fellowship (14:27–31).
- Drowsy fleshiness requires the _____ willingness of the Spirit (14:38; cf. Rom. 8:26–29).
- Be mindful of _____ burdens when committing to share another’s burden in prayer (14:32–40).
- Rejoice in the suffering Servant’s _____ (14:41–42).
- Hope in the _____ resurrection regathering (14:27–28).

Sermon Series: “Mark: The Servant in Action”

Sermon Title: “Don’t Sleep on Suffering’s Significance.”

Sermon Scripture: Mark 14:27–42

Biblical Idea: The _____ of the Servant caught Jesus’ disciples off guard until the _____ regathering for mission.

- The eschatological weight of the _____ uncovered the need of the disciples (14:27–31; cf. Zech. 13:7).
- The Servant began to _____ the weight of his suffering with three episodes of invitation to watchful fellowship (14:32–42; cf. Ps. 42:5, 11; 43:5).
 - Episode one revealed the great _____ of the Servant (vv. 32–38).
 - Episode two explained the _____ of the disciples (39–40).
 - Episode three contrasted the _____ of the Servant and the _____ of the disciples (40–41).

Purpose Bridge: To fellowship in God’s great _____ (hour, cup)—the mission and glory of His Son.

Theological Tension: The natures of the spirit and the flesh _____ one another in suffering’s temptation.

Theological Truth: Disciples require the Spirit of Christ for _____ fellowship in God’s great burden.

Today’s Message: Don’t Sleep on Suffering’s Significance.

Make It Personal: 5 Watchful Ways

- Replace _____ and relief with fellowship (14:27–31).
- Drowsy fleshiness requires the _____ willingness of the Spirit (14:38; cf. Rom. 8:26–29).
- Be mindful of _____ burdens when committing to share another’s burden in prayer (14:32–40).
- Rejoice in the suffering Servant’s _____ (14:41–42).
- Hope in the _____ resurrection regathering (14:27–28).